Særlige fokuspunkter	AIM: In this introductory module, our main focus is English language variation as we will focus on English as a lingua franca (ELF). You should already be familiar with the concept from your English B level, but we take it to the next step here. By reading through the literature below, you will become acquainted with both aspects of language, culture, and identity, as well as with attitudes towards language variation, more specifically in terms of accents. Finally, our focus on the historical spread of English will serve as an introduction to module 2 (Legacy of an Empire). Note that part of your hand-in by the end of this module is a grammatical test (screening) that I will use to keep track of your progression. You will soon notice that the small tasks correspond to the grammatical/stylistic tasks that you had to hand in as part of your B level exam. Obviously, because this is where we take off! Enjoy your work!
Væsentligste arbejdsformer	Individuelle (fjernstudie)  Skriftlig aflevering: Introopgave (screening)

The American Constitution ("We, the people...") Grammatik: Paratakse vs. hypotakse
Omf.	20 procent (ca. 36 sider + supplerende)
Særlige fokuspunkter	AIM: This subject deals with the US - from its early history to the present day. Topics such as race, immigration, and the American Dream will be explored in order to address the question, whether the US really is the land of opportunity. We will work with speeches in particular, not least relevant to the American 2020 Presidential Election. American Political Rhetoric will be at the center of our attention, and among other things, we will focus on level of formality. In other words, we seek out to determine whether a given style of language is formal or informal, and if there is a specific reason for the applied style of language. American History and The American Character <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Native Americans (the Frontier)</li><li>- The Declaration of Independence (excerpt: "We hold these truths...")</li><li>- The American Constitution ("We, the people...")</li><li>- The Black Experience (slavery; racial segregation; racism)</li><li>- The White Working Class (Blue-collar workers, shutdown)</li></ul> American Political Rhetoric High and low ways of speaking Democrats vs Republicans Obama, Trump, and Biden Rhetorical and Stylistic Devices: rhetorical modes (ethos, logos, pathos), idioms, imagery (symbols and metaphors), repetition, contrasts/opposites, alliteration (ex. fear vs facts), semantic fields, slang, abusive words Basic American Values and beliefs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Individual Freedom and Self-Reliance</li><li>- Material Wealth and Hard Work</li><li>- Equality of Opportunity and Competition</li></ul> Analyse af non-fiktion

Titel 6	Værklæsning (ikke opgivet separat, men i relation til modul 3 og 5)
Indhold	Kernestof: Roddy Doyle, The Woman who Walked Into Doors (1996)  Supplerende stof: PEE-modellen
Omfang	20 procent (ca. 200 sider)
Særlige fokuspunkter	Anvendelse af opbyggede kompetencer til analyse af værket, som læses i relation til modulerne Love og Evil → delvis repetition af de to moduler (anvendelse af begreber fra modulerne).  PEE-modellen anvendt til udarbejdelse af individuelle essays om værket, som derfor også fungerede som en sidste træning af den skriftlige eksamens Assignment 4 .  Irland (setting)
Væsentligste arbejdsformer	Individuelt (fjernstudie)  Mundtlig aflevering: Præsentation af romanen på baggrund af det skrevne essay Skriftlig aflevering: Write an analytical essay (900-1200 words) in which you analyze and interpret Roddy Doyle's novel The Woman Who Walked Into Doors .  Part of your essay must focus on the social setting in the story. In addition, your essay must include an analysis of the style of writing and a reference to Arhondia's short story " Tom Corridan " (cf. former written assignment in the module "Evil or III?").  Your essay must include references to the novel.

Gennem hele forløbet har holdet haft adgang til en OneNote-klassenotesbog med engelsk grammatik, analysemodeller til 'fiction & non-fiction' og sproglige øvelser.
